EXCLUSIVE EVENTS

At a young age, from his paper routes as a youth ROYCE became ROYCE New York as an to road trips across America selling his father's homage to the Bauer family's 70th year of leather leather accessories, Harold Bauer was a bona craftsmanship in New York City. With its artisan fide hustler, a true entrepreneur in the making Harold Bauer scaled his father's gifting business in celebrating that proud tradition. to unprecedented heights. His passion for people and product has been unrelenting throughout Harold has always had a knack for "styling" as people use during travel.

Following in the footsteps of his father, his son Will joined ROYCE in 2014 to expand our stores DISCOVER MORE and corporate partnerships.

roots stemming back to the 1880s in Vienna, Austria, ROYCE is a now a four-generation family In the late 1960s, after learning the leather craft, tradition, and Harold has played an integral part his tenure. Even on vacation, he loves discovering he calls it, and his eye for functional design is still new gifting ideas and studying the trend of what incredibly relevant. Many of his signature wallets, bags, and travel accessories from decades past continue to be bestsellers in luxury department He ultimately partnered with his wife Kathy stores across the world, including Bergdorf to establish our e-commerce business in 2003.
